Answer state as follows:

ANSWER

1. The allegations of the Complaint for Declaratory Relief are denied except as to those allegations specifically admitted below.

2. The allegations in paragraphs 1 through 6 are admitted.

3. The allegation in paragraph 7 that the McNally Defendants are residents of Shakopee, Minnesota is denied. The McNally Defendants currently reside in Jordan, Minnesota.

4. The allegations in paragraphs 8 and 9 are admitted.

5. The allegations in paragraphs 10 through 14 are admitted.

6. With respect to the allegations in paragraphs 15 through 18, it is admitted that Laurie Gregor was charged in a criminal complaint with (1) Assault - 1st Degree – Great Bodily Harm, (2) Malicious Punishment of a Child, and (3) Malicious Punishment of a Child - Child under 4 years.

7. Paragraph 19 is admitted.

8. The McNally Defendants are without information sufficient to form a belief as to the allegations in paragraphs 20, 21, and 22. The McNally Defendants do admit that they intend to pursue the claim in the underlying Complaint (Plaintiff's Exhibit A), which civil action has been stayed by an Order of the Minnesota State District Court.

9. The McNally Defendants are without information sufficient to form a belief as to the allegations in paragraphs 23 through 26.

10. The McNally Defendants are without information sufficient to form a belief as to the allegations in paragraphs 27 through 31.

11. Paragraph 32 is admitted.

12. The McNally Defendants affirmatively state that Laurie Gregor negligently fractured the skull of and caused a traumatic brain injury to N.M., as set forth in the Underlying Complaint (Plaintiff's Exhibit A).

13. The McNally Defendants affirmatively state that Laurie Gregor's criminal act of shaking NM occurred after the skull fracture and traumatic brain injury that had already been negligently caused by Laurie Gregor.

14. The McNally Defendants affirmatively state that Laurie Gregor's criminal act of shaking did not cause NM's skull fracture and the related traumatic brain injury, which injuries occurred prior to the criminal act of shaking.

15. The McNally Defendants affirmatively state that nothing in the language of the Plaintiff's insurance agreement with Laurie Gregor absolves Plaintiff West Bend Mutual Insurance Company from its obligation to indemnify Laurie Gregor for those damages that she negligently inflicted on N.M., prior to any criminal act.

16. West Bend Mutual Insurance Company provided liability insurance to Laurie Gregor in the amount of one million dollars ($1,000,000) for the occurrence on September 14, 2017, in which she negligently injured N.M.

17. The damages negligently inflicted on N.M. by Laurie Gregor, prior to the commission of any criminal act, are reasonably valued at an amount in excess of $1,000,000.

18. The McNally Defendants ask the Court to declare that West Bend Mutual Insurance Company remains liable to indemnify Laurie Gregor in the amount of $1,000,000 for the damages that she negligently inflicted on N.M. on September 14, 2017.

19. To the extent that factual issues must be resolved in order to determine the value of damages caused by the negligence of Laurie Gregor prior to her criminal acts, the McNally Defendants request a jury trial.

COUNTERCLAIM

Third Party Plaintiffs Crystal McNally and Brendan McNally, for themselves individually and on behalf of their minor child N.M., for their Counterclaim against West Bend Mutual Insurance Company, state as follows:

PARTIES

34. West Bend Mutual Insurance Company is liable to the Third Party Plaintiffs for one million dollars ($1,000,000).

35. A jury trial is requested pursuant to Rule 38 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure:

WHEREFORE, Crystal and Brendan McNally, individually and on behalf of their minor child N.M., ask for relief as follows:

1. With respect to the Declaratory Judgment action initiated by West Bend Mutual Insurance Company, a judgment declaring that no provision of the West Bend Mutual Insurance Company policy absolves the insurance company of its obligation to indemnify Laurie Gregor for damages negligently inflicted on N.M. prior to her criminal act.

2. With respect to the Declaratory Judgment action initiated by West Bend Mutual Insurance Company, a judgment declaring that the value of damages negligently inflicted by Laurie Gregor on N.M., prior to any criminal act, are reasonably valued at an amount in excess of one million dollars ($1,000,000), and that West Bend Mutual Insurance Company remains liable to indemnify Laurie Gregor in the amount of the policy limits of one million dollars for this occurrence.

3. With respect to the Counterclaim of the Third Party Plaintiffs, a judgment for the Third Party Plaintiffs against Third Party Defendant West Bend Mutual Insurance Company in the amount of one million dollars ($1,000,000).

4. An Order for Judgment providing costs, disbursements, and such other relief as the Court deems just.
